Dubai: The all-girl Beverly Hills Polo team got the new season at the Ghantoot Racing & Polo club off to a bright start with a comfortable victory over a mellow Ghantoot Goes Pink men's team.

Sporting pink jerseys, the feminine colour synonymous with breast cancer awareness, which was the theme of the season, the girls enjoyed a fast start and were up 3-nil at the end of the first chukker.

Princess Azemah, daughter of King of Brunei, was in fine form scoring two goals, with strong support coming from her teammates, Germany's Sandra Schneider, a Dubai-based PR guru, and the Argentine-pairing of Mananele Gastagnola, a pro player, and Marina Galarza

After they added another to port the second chukker with a
